CATHOLIC FORESTER STORY SUGGESTIONS

Catholic Forester magazine editors are always looking for stories highlighting member and court fraternal activities. Past court story examples include packaging meals for the hungry, collecting food and clothing for an Appalachian mission, painting pumpkins with nursing home residents, gathering stuffed animals for Hospice Care.

The magazine also carries interesting member stories like 80-year old knitter Joe Hegenbarth, Honor Flight participant Don Verbeck, Grandma Camp organizer Virginia Wilgenbusch, and WWII photographer George Stuber.

If you have a story suggestion fitting the guidelines, submit to address above, or e-mail pbaron@catholicforester.org. Submission does not guarantee publication.
